

Sterling Services

Architectural Precast Specialists

QHSE MANAGER – CONSTRUCTION

Sterling Services Ltd are one of the country's leading architectural precast concrete specialists with a comprehensive product range backed by a commitment to safety, quality and service.

Due to our growing business we now have a vacancy for a QSHE Manager at our factory based in Taunton, Somerset.

Responsibilities

- Daily responsibility for all quality, environmental and health and safety matters
- Work as part of the senior management team to identify and define long term strategies for the business
- Implementation and management of Business Management System to meet ISO9001, ISO14001, CHAS, SMAS, BPCF standards
- Carry out internal QSHE audits; liaising with senior directors and management to implement any changes required on site
- Ensure that processes needed for the BMS are established, implemented and maintained
- Manage investigation of nonconformance, assisting in identification of root cause and development of corrective action plans
- Maintain company compliance with all applicable legislative requirements
- Ensure that the factory workforce of 40+ production operatives are always operating safely and to legislative and company HSE standards
- Plan & perform RAMS and COSHH for site materials and tasks
- Reporting, Monitoring, investigation and Prevention of accidents, incidents and near misses
- Organise and perform Toolbox Talks
- Monitor KPI requirements and improve

Required Skills / Experience

- Experience of managing in a construction and manufacturing environment
- Experience of working to ISO45001,14001, 9001 and CHAS standards
- Demonstrable capacity to be influential and tenacious
- Proficient IT skills
- Superior Organisation skills
- Solid problem solving, decision making and analytical capabilities
- NEBOSH Diploma or equivalent (Preferred)
- Chartered Member of IOSH (Preferred)

Position: Full Time, permanent

Hours: 7.30AM – 5PM

Salary: Negotiable